

The Selective Service Exemption Request form can be completed by an applicant that failed to meet the requirement to register for Selective Service between the ages of 18-25 and did not knowingly and willfully not register with Selective Service and applicants who are non-eligible citizens with no social security number.

- An Exemption does not allow for additional hours to GSFC program funding eligibility or funding cap.
- An Exemption does not change a student's grades or GPA calculation.
- The Exemption solely allows for participation in the GSFC state programs while meeting all other eligibility requirements.
